THROUGH THE WINDOW

TAYLOR ROBINSON

"Look at that man!"

"Right there!"

Don't you see him?"

"What?"

"He's not there?"

"He's not real?"

"But he's my brother."

"He's my mirror."

"He's me"

THE MAN WITH PALE GREEN EYES

DANIELA ABRATT

That man. That face. A mirror of sorrow.
Who is he?
Who is the man with the pale green eyes?

All on his own. Watching. Waiting.
Waiting for what?
I wonder what he sees through his pale green eyes.

On the bench he sits. Day after day. Night after night.
Calm. Collected. Composed.
As if his world stands still with the opening of his pale green eyes.

Feeling the weight of his body, he slowly rises
The sun gleaming off his pale green eyes.
For whom does he cry?

His pale green eyes teem with troubled tears
Yet on the bench he sits back down.
Watching. Waiting. Weeping.

The mystery of his past, his future, his present
Who is he? What has he become?
Who is the man with the pale green eyes?
